

St. Luke's Friends of Music

Ēchos (ee-kos) - a select vocal chamber ensemble drawn from the ranks of the concert choir, Choralis will perform as part of the St. Luke's Friends of Music concert series Saturday, February 20th at 7:30 PM. Listeners will be transported through multiple cultural heritages and periods from the Elizabethan renaissance of William Byrd to the romantic period of Brahms, the folk traditions of Celtic, Swedish/German, and American spirituals, concluding with Virginian James Erb's haunting arrangement of Shenandoah. Ēchos exceptional musicality and artistry have afforded them recognition in the Washington metropolitan area as one of the leading vocal chamber ensembles.

CHORALIS
GRETCHEN KUHRMANN, ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Tickets: Adults - $20.00; Seniors - $15.00; Students - $10.00; and Youth 13 - $5.00; Available by calling 703.765.4342 and at the door, opening at 7:00 PM

St. Luke's Episcopal Church – 8009 Fort Hunt Road – Alexandria, VA 22309